Dear Kelly:

Please excuse my uneasiness, I am not a professional typist.

Congratulations. You got us.

The tune you mentioned is on our sign-off cart. It is "Happy Trails" by Quicksilver Messenger Service. The announcer's name is Ross B. Brittain. Otherwise your transcript is correct. QMS whistles "Happy Trails" out.

I am sending you one of our window stickers, a bumper sticker, and a coverage map which will give you an idea of how far the signal is supposed to go. As you may know, sunset skips like this one are not uncommon. I picked up an Oklahoma station about a week ago from here in Atlanta! In fact, two weeks ago, we also received a card from a listener who received us in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. I am also enclosing one of our business cards for your collection. Thanks for listening, and tune in again!

Sincerely,

Ross B. Brittain
