Dear Mr. Andrews:

Thank you very much for your letter dated February 13, 1968, concerning reception of WKDE.

Here is our complete sign off. "Now, it's time for Katey to go to sleep. She's has a hard day, bringing you the latest news, weather, sports and cosmopolitan program. Even a lady as happy and energetic as Katey must rest. WKDE operates on 1000 kilocycles on your dial, with 1000 watts, daytime as authorized by the Federal Communications Commission of Washington, D. C. Katey's AM Broadcast facility lives on Lola Avenue Extension, just north of Altavista, and is owned and operated by the Altavista Broadcasting Corporation.. a Gray Broadcasting Station. (Yawn) Yes, Katey is tired after a long day's work, and now she must rest. Katey is the mother of WAKS radio, the giant of country music in Fuquay-Varina, N. C. serving metro Raleigh and husband of WHEO radio in Stuart, Virginia. Together they make the family of Gray Broadcast Stations. Goodnight Katey.... (Ummmmmmmm) Let's tuck in those watts of power, and blow out the lamp. Goodnight.....Katey. (Blow out lamp)

Hope this information will be beneficial in your report.

Again thanks for your interest and taking time to write WKDE.

Very truly yours,
