

WASHINGTON, D. C.

July 30, 1941.

Mr. Ernest R. Cooper,
438 East 21 Street,
Brooklyn, New York.

Dear Mr. Cooper:

We are pleased to confirm your reception of WWDC in Brooklyn, New York as evidenced by the information contained in your letter of July 29th.

We will be pleased to arrange at some future date for a special DX program dedicated to the National Radio Club.

Do you have any suggestion as to an appropriate date and time?

Assuring you of our cooperation at all times, I am

Very truly yours,

STATION WWDC

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Norman Reed', with a long, sweeping tail that extends to the right.

Norman Reed,
Program Director.

NR:ce