Dear Mr. Cooper:

Thank you for your reception report for January 23, 1957 from 4:46:20 C.S.T. to 4:57:15 AM, C.S.T. Your report is "Verified" with our log for that time. Our broadcast day begins at 5:45 AM, EST.

Your information about Ward Ridge is correct. It is a newly incorporated city with a population of about a dozen people at the present time. Port St. Joseph, I believe, is an older version of Port St. Joe. Port St. Joe has a very interesting history. It is the location at which the State Constitution was drawn up--it has been destroyed three times, by fire, tidal wave and yellow fever--and is now beginning to grow rapidly. We at WJOE hope to be a very important part of its growth and we hope to grow with it.

Sorry we don't have a coverage map at the present time.

Thanks again for your interest and your very nice letter. Best wishes for many more hours of happy listening.

Very truly yours,

Marty Begley
