Dear Mr. Cooper:

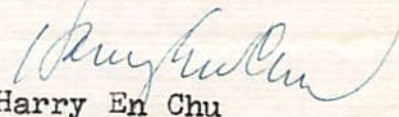

This is to verify your DX report on Station KAHU, on February 9, 1953. The program material listed in your report checked with our station log.

We want to thank you very much for your time and trouble in preparing this report and sending it to us. As you know, such reports are of considerable value to our radio station, and we shall place it in our files for future reference.

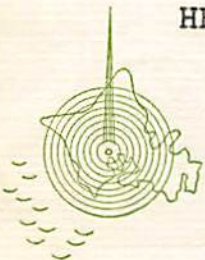

If you should pick us up again in the future, we would appreciate having such reports and comments as you might care to make from time to time.

Very truly yours,

Radio Station KAHU
