Dear Mr. Cooper:

Thank you very much for your excellent report of January 2, 1947 on reception of WANN during its equipment test program. We expect to go on our regular daytime schedule around the middle of next week, and we would appreciate a report from you if you happen to hear us towards sunset, just before we sign off.

We have verified your log of reception, and we herewith confirm your reception as being official.

We cannot give you any information on our frequency checking time as yet.

Thank you for your very kind wishes and your fine report.

Very truly yours,

ANNAPOLIS BROADCASTING CORP.
