Dear Mr. Cooper:

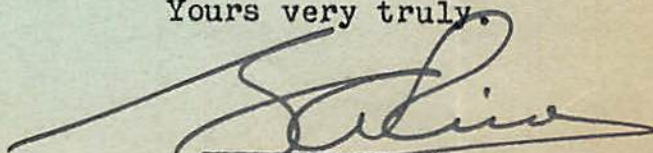

We have the pleasure to inform that your report regarding our broadcast of January 10th is correct. We appreciate very much your kind letter.

We also want you to know that from now on, beginning next Saturday evening and Sunday morning until 3 O'Clock A. M., S.S. T., we will do weekly, special D X broadcasts, which will be dedicated to the different radio clubs of America. We hope -- you'll listen to this programs every week and also that you - may do some publicity to our station with your D X pals.

As you are a member of the Natinal Radio Club of York, Pa. -- and as we want to dedicate our programs of February 13th and 14th to the National Radio Club of York, Pa., we expect that the largest number possible of its members should attend to - the broadcast. We are willing to accept any suggestions on -- the kind of music or entertainment you and your pals want for that program.

Hoping to hear again from you, we remain

Yours very truly,

Alfonso Rico.
