Dear Mr. Cooper:

Please forgive me for not confirming your reception of our station July 7th, 1958. We were conducting equipment tests in preparation for our opening.

As you have said, we have been quite busy since this time, but our failure to confirm your reception was due, apparently, to misplacing your original report.

Thanks very much for your fine co-operation and may we hear from you again in the future. Regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Boyce J. Hanna, Gen. Mgr.
