Dear Mr. Cooper,

Thank you for writing and for listening. It's always nice to hear from a new listener. I'm surprised and happy you received us in Provincetown.

In answer to your questions, our call letters changed from WOKO to WWCN when our format changed from country music to all news. (WOKO went bankrupt.) As of yet, we have no FM outlet, however, our sister station is WBEC in Pittsfield, Mass. We presently broadcast from 5:30 AM to 12 midnight. We may go overnight but that is not yet definite. We carry both ABC and CNN news but depend largely on local happenings to interest our listeners.

I hope you listen as often as you can receive us. Spread the word to all your friends. I'm sure they'll enjoy listening too. After all, who doesn't want to keep up with the latest news.

Sincerely,

Chris Devine
General Manager
