Dear Mr. Cooper:

This letter is verification of your report heard January 18, 1953.

At the present time, being a brand new station, we have no DX cards. We will send you same in the very near future.

We are an independent, daytime station. Our first day on the air was December 24, 1952. We are not affiliated with any network as yet and operate as a non-directional.

Thank you for your excellent report and may we take this opportunity to invite you to visit us at any time that you may be in this vicinity.

Very truly yours,

John W. Angst
