Dear Mr. Cooper:

We appreciate your recent letter regarding our radio station.

On checking your report of reception with our program log, we find that the two correspond. Thus, we take pleasure at this time in verifying your reception of WDLB, Marshfield, Wisconsin, on July 4, 1947, at 2:05 a.m., CST.

Congratulations on your being able to pull our signal through that of the all-night Washington, D. C., radio station. We realize the patience needed to accomplish such a feat.

We'd be pleased to hear from you again whenever you have the opportunity of tuning in our station.

Incidentally, our test broadcasting schedule is usually from 2-2:30 a.m., CST, the first Friday of each month, but on occasion we may sign on about 15 minutes early.

Thank you very much for your report.

Cordially,

Ray Adams
DX Correspondent, WDLB
