Dear Mr. Cooper:

It was very nice to hear from you. As you may gather from the enclosed coverage map, we don't expect to hear from many listeners way out in Provincetown. It's good to know we can be heard out there on the tip of the world.

Everything you listed on your letter was in fact broadcast last Sunday during my show. Your record of my show was kept in better detail than our own log in fact. (Don't tell the FCC though).

I showed your letter to our morning man here on 98-CAV (Ken McDonald) and he expressed interest in your hobby. He asked me for your phone # which wasn't enclosed, but I gave him your address. Ken likes to call people of interest and have them on in the morning, and he plans on calling information for your phone #. I can't guarantee he will follow through on this but I thought you'd be interested in knowing about it ahead of time in case you hear from him some time.

To answer your question about why we call ourself 98-CAV instead of WCAV on the air; our Program Director thinks "98-CAV" is more catchy as a means of promoting ourselves. Our legal call letters are in fact WCAV.

Continued luck with your DX-ing, and I hope you will tune us in every so often.

Sincerely Yours,

Bruce Bernstein
