Dear Ernest,

This letter is to verify your reception of WFAL FM 101.1. Please accept my apology for not having answered your original letter of February 1987, it must have been misplaced in the shuffle of putting the station on the air. Your transcript is correct regarding our first day of transmission with a few minor exceptions. It is Schooner Broadcasting, Inc. and the transmitter is located on Thomas Landers Rd. The announcer's name was Chris Nelson.

Regarding your letter of October 8th, 1989, all is fine until 9:55 a.m., the restaurant is the Wharf at Falmouth Heights.

The "birth" of WFAL was the dream of a lifetime for me, and I find it heartwarming to know that other people shared in that first very special transmission. I'm glad that you enjoy your hobby so much, all too many people retire and have nothing to occupy their time. Enclosed, per your request, is one of our coverage maps. The best of luck to you, and thank you for your interest in our station.

Sincerely,
