Dear Mr. Cooper:

What a thrill for us to receive your correspondence from the "Home of America", Cape Cod Massachusetts. It's always fun to find our signal is being heard in an unexpected locale.

Confirmation is acknowledged regarding your reception of Life Changing Radio WBCI, 105.9 FM on July 14-15 1995. So far, in our infancy, yours is the first documented reception well beyond our coverage area. Our tower is situated in Bowdoinham, ME with a tower height of 466 ft. and a 50,000 watt signal.

Enclosed is our coverage map as requested, along with a schedule of programming.

Thank you for your kind letter, it was no trouble at all.

Sincerely,

Marc E. Tischart
Station Manager
