Dear Mr. Cooper,

You have to be the most distant listener we have ever had. Most likely, the two female singers you heard were from an album by a group called Metamora. Our logs are not set up so we can pinpoint the cuts to the exact moment. Your description of the host's comments fits right in with what would be heard at that time on Monday morning. We have a program at that time of acoustic folk music. The host is a very soft spoken Japanese folk musician. The program is called Across the Wide Missouri. It begins at 9:05am and runs til noon. I just looked back at your letter and realized that the time was later - so the song may have been one by Sally Roger and Claudia Schmidt. I'm enclosing a music log.

We certainly enjoyed receiving your letter. What fun to have been heard so far away. We also enjoyed your brochure from WOMR. It looks like a good station. I'm glad you have a station there to be involved in.

Thanks for writing to us to let us verify your reception!

Sincerely,
