NATIONAL PUBLIC RADIO
AMERICAN PUBLIC RADIO
AT UNC CHARLOTTE

July 13, 1989

Dear Mr. Cooper,

On the evening of July 7th you did indeed tune into WFAE 90.7 FM located in Charlotte, North Carolina. We would like to thank you for showing such interest and enthusiasm in finding out about our station.

WFAE is a 100,000 watt station that broadcasts in-depth news and public affairs programs, contemporary and mainstream jazz and folk music. WFAE reaches 22 various counties in North and South Carolina within a 65 mile radius of Charlotte. WFAE is on the air 24 hours a day, every day of the year operating as a department within the University of North Carolina at Charlotte's Division of Development and Public Service.

We appreciate your offer of sending us a tape of "Forward-March!" Unfortunately this type of program would not reach out to our target audience. WFAE would like to encourage you to continue your efforts in radio, and we hope that they continue to be rewarding for you.

Enclosed for your information and enjoyment is a WFAE program guide and sticker. Once again, thank you for your enthusiasm in public radio.

Sincerely,

Roger Sarow
Station Manager
