Good Morning, Ernest!

Thanks for your letter of November 22. We were happy to get it and to know we have been heard way up in Provincetown.

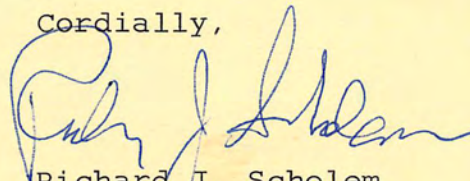

I think this is the first report we have gotten from there in our 12 years of operations. You certainly did hear enough for a positive verification.

Yes, Dana Poppuolo was our chief engineer before moving on to Providence and no doubt is the fellow who was on the Cape to help WOMR last summer.

There are a number of Italian restaurants on Route 25 near Smithtown that have been operating over the years, but if it was Raneri's, yes, it's still there and going strong. In fact, WCTO just got a big advertising contract from them.

Thanks for writing. We enjoyed reading your nice letter. Best wishes.

Cordially,

Richard J. Scholem
