Dear Ernest,

What a surprise to hear from Provincetown, Massachusetts! In the past I have received calls from Providence, Rhode Island, but never anything from Massachusetts. Sorry about your never having received a verification from WRCN in the past, but it was never brought to my attention. Unfortunately, I have discovered, people in radio rarely, if ever, reply to any letters or phone calls. I at least try to when possible.

Please accept this as your verification. I have been the over-night D.J. here at WRCN since mid-March 1982. During those 18 months I have been here from midnite until 6am, six days a week faithfully except for 3 sick days and 1 week vacation. Unfortunately, the night you tuned in just happened to be one of my infrequent sick days. However, you supplied me with sufficient information to establish without any doubt the identity of the station to be WRCN. I checked with my fill-in, Bob Baron (a part-timer), and he agreed. Just for the record, our official hour I.D. is "Long Island and Connecticut's Adult Rock Station, WRCN Riverhead, Westhampton Beach." Our phone number is 516-369-1111 (not 469). Please feel free to call again next time.

It is kind of frightening to know that someone up on the Cape is listening to me here on Long Island. It should certainly keep me on my toes! Recently while driving through Bridgehampton (further east of Riverhead) I picked up 94½ WCOZ from Boston on my little car radio and it was quite a thrill. I'd be glad to be part of your collection. On behalf of the rest of the staff at WRCN (and WRHD) I'd like to say hello and keep listening. Best of luck on your radio career too!

Sincerely,

Pat Creed
