Dear Mr. Cooper:

Of the program segments you cited in your letter, you are correct in assuming that most, if not all, came over WSUL, Sunday, January 20th, 1985. As program director, and "deejay" broadcasting that afternoon, it gives me great pleasure to respond to your request for a verification. I enclose a WSUL coverage map as well.

I believe your logging is the farthest our signal has ever been noted. We are off-the-air for the brief period of midnight to five a.m. on Mondays only...so you have many hours in which to tune us in again!

It's a pleasure to learn more about WSUL's listeners. Thank you very much for your letter.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Ruth Huggler'. The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looped 'H'.
