Dear Carl,

You probably thought that this would never come, but believe it or not it has. The volume of mail following our hurricane broadcast was tremendous and unfortunately some reports were lost in the shuffle.

Your information as presented on your "N.R.C." report form is correct. I hope this will satisfy your needs for confirmation.

Thank you for being patient with us, being on a U.S. clear channel, being a daytimer, and being a newcomer makes us a nice catch on the domestic radio scene. This means enough QSL requests to keep us busy in our spare time.

Regards,

Robert D. McDaniel
