Dear Mr. Dabelstein:

We have checked the details you submitted with our program log and announcer and find that you were indeed listening to WUSF, the FM station at the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida.

WUSF is a non-commercial FM station operating on 89.7 MHz with studios on the University campus and transmitter 18 miles south near the town of Riverview. The station radiates 85,000 watts ERP stereo with center of radiation 807 feet above ground. The antenna is on the same tower with WUSF-TV Channel 16 and WEDU Channel 3.

Sincerely,

John Ralle
Chief Engineer
WUSF(FM)-TV
