Dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter of 28th January 1964, in which you state you received our Midland Home Service programmes on Monday, 27th January 1964.

We are pleased that your reception was so excellent and thank you for your good wishes.

We confirm that the programme was Midland Home Service radiated by our 150 kW transmitter on 1088 Kc/s situated at Droitwich, almost in the centre of England.

For your future guidance, enclosed please find a booklet on BBC Television and Radio stations up to date.

Best reception wishes for the future.

Yours faithfully,

R. R. Arthur
