Dear Mr. Geary,

Thank you for your most interesting letter. The broadcast you heard was indeed the Northern Ireland Home Service. It is very remarkable that you should get clear reception at such extreme range, and I am passing your letter (and your congratulations) to our Engineering Department. All the programmes that morning were relayed by land line from London to our transmitter at Lisburn (some 10 miles outside Belfast), except the 5-minute programme summary which you mention, and this came from our own studios here in Belfast.

With all good wishes for 1955,

Yours sincerely,

(Patrick Robinson)
