Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your letter of March 24th. First of all I want to apologize to you for not answering it before this. We have been very busy here at KJAN the past few months. Also our staff has been shorthanded. I have found it necessary to put aside all work that was not absolutely necessary for our operation. The pressure of business is just now starting to let up so I am trying to get caught up on my correspondence.

I wish to confirm your reception of KJAN on March 24, 1953 from 12:41 to 12:51 AM CST. I wish to thank you for your nice letter describing your set up and also for our reception report. Sorry about the delay in answering.
