

PROGRAM VERIFICATION

Of Radio Station

WOMI

Radiophone of the Owensboro, Kentucky
MESSENGER AND INQUIRER

Your report on Monitor program on Oct. 14 at 4:50 AM, checks with our Station Log. The next DX broadcast will be on the air
Saturday morning, at 7:30 A.M., C.S.T.

FACTS ABOUT OWENSBORO: Founded in 1790, on the Ohio river 114 miles Southwest of Louisville. Population 1930 was 22,765; in 1937, population was 29,500. Bank deposits December 31, 1937 were $8,138,668.00. One of the Nation's largest tobacco markets. Retail business approximately 75% greater than in 1935. First in Kentucky in per capita industrial investment. Produces Ken-Rad, the better radio tube, long-lived Ken-Rad Electric Lamps, world renowned Kentucky bourbon, furniture, wagons, brick, tile, rough lumber, etc. Forty-one manufacturing establishments, two newspapers, one radio station.

FROM THE HOME OF
KEN-RAD TUBES
DAILY CAPACITY 85,000

OWENSBORO BROADCASTING COMPANY
Incorporated

By

Earl Jagoe
Earl Jagoe, Chf. Eng.