Dear Mr. Geary:

We have the pleasure to reply your kind letter dated on Jan. 11 reporting our special DX program broadcast on the morning of January 10. We find that your log is exact in every parts.

We do not find the proper words to thank you for your attention and very soon we will have the pleasure to advise you when our next program will take place.

Enclosed you will find a post card with a view of Tampico, one of the leading ports in the Republic of México.

With our best wishes to you we sincerely thank you and we remain

Very truly yours
