

RADIO STATION WAKU
LATROBE, PENNSYLVANIA

250 WATTS
1570 KILOCYCLES

P. O. BOX 208

Mar. 11, 1952

Mr. Hermit Geary

R. D. # 2

Walnutport, Pa.

Dear Sir:

We are pleased to verify your reception of WAKU on Feb. 17, 1952 at 5:31 P. M. WAKU operates from 7:00 A.M. to sunset from studios in downtown Latrobe and transmitter at near-by Cooperstown. Latrobe has a population of 11,000 and was named for Benjamin Latrobe, a civil engineer.

Thank you for your report.

Very truly yours,

Bernard Guidos, C.E.

vs.

