R.D. 2, Box 298
Walnut port, Pa.

Dear Kermit:

Your fine letter received on picking us up on the air Jan. 15, 1959 at 4:54 A.M. and we are very pleased to hear from someone away off writing us and telling the information in regard to our station and also that the information is good and thanks.

We do verify that what was written in your letter did in fact, give a true picture of what was done at that time and so you did receive us.

You might like to know that the wrâter of this epistle came from Pa., near West Chester, Pa. or to be exact from where the Brandywine Battle was fought in the Revolutionary war and of course in that case doubly interested in your letter. Brinton's Bridge. My father had a flour mill there that ground wheat for the Revolutionary war. It has been sold recently to a son of a famous artist named N. C. Wyeth. Andy Wyeth is the name and is also an artist himself.

In case your are ever in this neighborhood, would be interested, in having you stop and you may consider this an invitation.

Sincerely yours

Ralph W. Hoffman
Owner-Gen. Manager.

P. S. You might be interested in knowing that your letter will be put up on the wall for others to see just like you will probably do with ours.
