Dear Kermit:

This will confirm your reception of WGOC, Blountville, Tennessee, on Monday November 14, 1994, from 05:15 PM to 5:30 PM EST.

WGOC is owned and operated by the J. T. Parker Broadcasting Corporation and is licensed to Blountville, Tennessee. Blountville is a small community located in Northeast Tennessee, in the center of the Tri-Cities of Kingsport, Bristol and Johnson City, Tennessee.

WGOC operates with 10,000 watts non-directional daytime and with 810 watts directional nighttime. The antenna system consist of a 450 foot tower for daytime non-directional and a second 190 foot tower is added for nighttime. WGOC must operate directional at night to provide protection to KFI, a 640 Khz Clear Channel Station in Los Angeles, California. The directional pattern is to the east and southeast.

Kermit, thanks for your reception report on WGOC and good DXing in the future.

Kindest regards

Mitch Sandidge
Chief Engineer, WGOC
