Along with this note you will find a copy of the WCLH Program Guide. WCLH is a public radio station owned and operated by Wilkes College and strives to operate in the public interest by serving the needs of the people of Northeastern Pennsylvania with quality non-commercial programming.

Our staff includes one faculty member who advises the program and 55 student members who volunteer their talents to operate WCLH in return for practical experience in communications.

We are happy to have you as a listener. Your comments and suggestions concerning our programming are always welcome. If your organization is sponsoring a noncommercial event, please send us a post card with all the information and we will announce it over WCLH.

Sincerely,

Tom Beck,
WCLH Advisor.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of th twentieth of this month, yes, you were listening to WCLH, 90.7, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. I have gone over our logs for the day in question, and you are to be commended for the accuracy with which you noted our broadcast. I could not find any errors what-so-ever.

In answer to your other questions, we transmit at an assigned frequency of 90.7 megaHertz, with a vertical power of 175 watts and a horizontal power of 175 watts. Our antenna is located on Electronic Heights, Pa. and has a height of 829 feet at north latitude 41 degrees, 10 minutes, and 58 seconds; west longitude 75 degrees, 52 minutes, and 21 seconds.

Thank you for your correspondance, and attention to our station. Being an educational station, we rarely get to hear from our public as much as we would like. To be contacted by a member of an organization as esteemed as yours is indeed a rare pleasure. Best of luck in future frequency hunting and again, thank you.

Sincerely,

Keith Jones; Production Engineer
