Dear Kermit,

Thank you for writing and telling us about your reception of our signal. All of the information you reported is correct.

I don't know how detailed you want me to be, so I'm going to give you all of the information I can think of, and you can sift through it:

POWER OUTPUT	100,000 Watts
ANTENNA	462 HAT
BROADCAST HOURS	6am-Midnight

We are located in Smith Hall on the campus of the University of North Texas. Our primary format is jazz, but we also play Tex-Mex/Tejano music (Sat. 6am-Noon), and classical music (Sun. 6am-6pm). KNTU is run almost entirely by a student staff, except for the Station Manager and the Chief Engineer.

The announcers that you heard were:

John Mefford - Closing report of the football game
Tony Masella - "High School Scoreboard"
Mark Taylor - Disc jockey

The phone number for the station is (817) 565-3688.
The program that you heard a promo for is "The Late Night Snack".

We hope that you enjoyed our broadcast, and that you'll have another chance to do so. Good luck to you, and if there is anything else you'd like to know about KNTU please write us and let us know.

Regards,

John MacEnulty (Johnny Mack)

P.S. I'm enclosing on of our "old" bumper stickers. We have redesigned them, but have not gotten them back from the printer yet. We'll send you a new one as soon as they come in.
