

Oslo, Norway.
Vigelandsanlegget.

The Vigeland Collection, Northern Europe's largest sculptural collection, is composed of a bridge with sculpture groups in bronze, a fountain, and Vigeland's greatest work, the Monolith, a 52-foot-high granite pillar carved with 121 human figures. Vigeland (1869-1943) is himself responsible for the design, the plans, and their execution.
