

BELL SYSTEM OVERSEAS TELEPHONE SERVICE

We are pleased to acknowledge your report dated June 22, 1964

regarding your reception of a Bell System Radiotelephone Station. Magnetic tape test transmissions are used for circuit adjustment purposes in our Public Point-to-Point and High Seas Radiotelephone Services. They are beamed to all parts of the world by single sideband transmitters using rhombic antennas.

We wish you continued success in the radio field.

New York City

R. F. Bloom
Central Office Chief

To Mr. Wayne Himen
126 Linwood Avenue
Orchard Park, New York

American Telephone & Telegraph Co.