Dear Sir:

We have yours of the 4th. instant and are certainly very glad indeed to have you report that you listened to our D.X. program on December 4th.

You must realize that, when boys are working all day long, they do not like to get up in the night and put on a special program. However, we did happen to persuade them to do it in this case, and we are well satisfied with the results obtained.

We are very proud of our little transmitting equipment here, manufactured by the Marconi Company, and we think it is as good as anything on the market.

We are also very proud of our announcer, who is giving wonderful satisfaction.

There is no question at all about you hearing our Station, as all you told us was absolutely correct.

We have had over one hundred and fifty letters already, from as far south as Baltimore and as far west as Detroit, and, no doubt, the mails this week will bring in many more letters.

We hope to put on another program a little later, made up of local talent, but, before doing so, will advise your Radio Clubs, so that the American fans will be listening for us.

Thanking you for writing us, we are

Yours truly,
