Dear Mr. Brauner,

I am in receipt of your letter of October 6, 1949. Mr. Higdon is no longer with our organization, consequently your letter was referred to me.

I regret that your previous report has gone unanswered. I can only apologize for the delay and assure you that no such delay will occur again.

I have checked our files and I find your report to be very accurate. We sincerely appreciate your interest and your report.

We make regular tests each Tuesday at 445 A.M.

Sincerely yours,
