Dear Sir:

We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated January 2nd, 1933 asking verification of your reception.

The program you picked up was our New Year's night program broadcast from the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and the announcer was Paul Connet then they switched over to Lau Yee Chai for another dance program.

We are most certainly ^{glad} to know that you picked us up in New York and wish that you will tune in regularly from now on and enjoy the programs we put on.

Hoping that you will have a better and clearer reception, we remain,

Yours truly,

A. Denley
