Dear Sir:

A formal acknowledgement of your report on our recent broadcasting has probably already gone forward to you, but the writer desires to personally thank you for the very explicit and helpful report which you sent to us. The data which your report contained have been of material assistance to us in our engineering work. We are not unmindful of the effort and time involved in the preparation and forwarding of the report on your observations. We very much appreciate the cooperation which you have shown in assisting us to improve our broadcasting service. Again thanking you for this information, we are

Very truly yours,

KFMX,
