Mr. J. W. Brauner
Williamsville, N. Y.

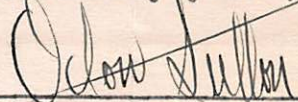

My dear Mr. Brauner:

We shall never be able to thank you for your fine letter of the 22nd in reporting our signals.

We received several reports from the state of New York, however, yours is more like we wanted relative to our quality, volume, modulation, etc. So, let me take this opportunity in wishing more power to the radio clubs for the betterment of broadcasting.

Within the next few days you shall receive an illustrated booklet on the Ozarks describing our territory, and trusting that we shall hear from you again, I am

Sincerely yours,

Program Director
