Dear Sir:

We have your letter dated Feb. 17, 1935, in which you report our Broadcast, and compared with our log, your report is exact.

If you enjoy our programs as we hope you do, and there is a special mexican song you would like to hear, we will gladly dedicate it to you between the hour of 12 midnight Saturday and 1 a.m. Sunday morning, as this is the hour dedicated to our radio listeners in U. S. A. and Canadá.

Thanking you very much, and hoping you will send us a note from time to time as to how you hear us and to advise us as to our programs, we repeat ourselves,

Yours truly,

H. Murray
 GERENTE.
