

Ground Hog Slide, Chimney Rock,
near Asheville, N. C.—39
“Where life is worth while.”

Asheville, the Capital of western North Carolina, where every scene is a picture, the most perfect all-year playground and pleasure resort in America. Placed within the swing of a circle 100 miles around Asheville are one hundred peaks a mile high, sixty-four over 6,000 feet, and lofty Mt. Mitchell 6,711 feet, all clothed with forests of hardwood, spruce, balsam; with rivers, sparkling mountain streams, cascades, falls, and a climate unsurpassed in all the world for any season.

POST CARD

STATION WWNC

acknowledges with thanks your kind communication. We are on the air daily with an attractive series of programs, and will be happy, indeed, to receive your comments from time to time.

Cordially yours,
STATION WWNC

"THE VOICE OF THE ASHEVILLE CITIZEN"
G. O. SHEPHERD, Director.

1000 WATTS. WAVELENGTH 526 METERS. LOCATED ON TOP OF THE FLAT IRON BUILDING, UP IN ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Mr. Joseph Brauner
17 - Spring St
Williamsville
N. C.