Dear Sir:

Thank you for your very kind letter of April 24th.

On Sunday April 24th, 1932, our program was as follows:

Bill James, - D-X Tips, 12:30 to 12:45 A.M.
Electrical Recordings, 12:45 to 1 A.M.

Mr. Bill James of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle is with us each week at the same time, giving his helpful D-X Tips.

WCGU solicits comments and constructive criticism pertaining to our programs, quality of transmission and signal strength. We take this opportunity therefore to thank you for your friendly interest.

We are endeavoring to produce programs in harmony with your likes and the only means we have of knowing what you prefer is by your response through mail. Our artists and various performers and program sponsors are also vitally interested in hearing from you as this is their only means of criticism and applause.

Again may we thank you for your communication and future interest.

Very truly yours,

UNITED STATES BROADCASTING CORP.
