

PURDUE UNIVERSITY RADIO STATIONS

SCHOOL OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING, WEST LAFAYETTE, IND.

Station WBAA broadcasting Mon. & Fri. 7 to 8 P.M., C.S.T., 1000 watts daytime - 500 at night. 1400 Kcs., 214.2 meters. Station operated and programs arranged by students under faculty supervision. Rendering an educational service since 1921.

Television Station W9XC transmitting experimental programs of standard motion pictures and news reels on a frequency of 2800 Kcs., 107.1 meters. Maximum power output - 1500 watts. Programs every Tuesday and Thursday 8 to 9 P.M., C.S.T.

Amateur Station W9YB operating on 20, 40, and 80 meters. Traffic handled by student operators under faculty supervision.

WBAA reception verified