ROLLAND L. LINDBLADE;

Mr. Lindblade, sorry about the delay in answering your return but I'm just now halfway catching up to where I should have been two months ago. We appreciate you listening in so much to our DX testing on March 28 between 1:00a.m. and 1:30 a.m. CST.

Again, thank-you for your time and response to the test...

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Allan T. Lane". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping underline.

Allan T. Lane
