Dear Mr. Maguire,

Your letters sent direct to the Hiroshima, the Sendai stations have just reached us respectively. Thank you very much for your reports on the reception status of our medium wave broadcastings for domestic services.

At present all local stations in Japan are not verifying and we are taking over their job, confirming all reception reports sent o them.

Herewith enclosed, you will please find a sheet of our latest program schedule for international broadcast, which I hope will be of some help to your future reception. Your information on this beaming is also welcome for the improvement of the quality of our overseas services intended for foreigners abroad.

Thanking you again for your reports, I remain,

Very truly yours,

for ISAMU YAMAZAKI
