Dear Mr. Maguire:

This is a confirmation of your report on receiving our Radio Station at New Mexico.

We are very happy to hear that reception is heard that far. Radio must be a very interesting hobby and we hope you keep it up. The program on the air at that time was a show called "Moonglow" with host John Farrington ... son of our former delegate to Congress Joseph R. Farrington. We hope that whatever music you heard, you enjoyed. John plays semi-classical and jazz records.

Again, thanks for the interest and information. We hope to hear from you again soon.

Sincerely yours,

Jean Y. Shiota
