January 10, 1947.

Mr. Norman L. Maguire,
185 Williams Street,
Glastonbury, Connecticut.

Dear Norman:

I was quite pleased to see your DX letter the other day, I am sure you must have heard from our chief engineer by now verifying your listening.

We have set up a new regional network here in New Mexico known as the Zia Network composed of stations in Gallup, Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Albuquerque.

We hope to have a new station in El Paso by summer which will become part of our group. It all looks very promising at the present and the stations are being well received.

Let me hear from you - would be interested to know what you are doing.

Kindest personal regards,

MERLE H. TUCKER
