Dear KVOH listener,

Greetings from High Adventure Radio! We thank you for your recent reception report. KVOH is located in Southern California near Los Angeles in the United States. We are currently broadcasting in two languages: Spanish from 1600 to 1900 UTC and English from 1900 to 0000 UTC on 17.775 in the 16 meter band. We receive reception reports from all over the world. We have only been on the air a few months and have heard from over 40 countries worldwide, which has indicated to us that KVOH has quite a following.

The entire operation of the station is run on "free will" gifts and offerings from interested individuals all over the world. We have a staff of English and Spanish speaking personnel.

High Adventure is currently operating the Voice of Hope (AM & FM) and the King of Hope (shortwave) in the Middle East. High Adventure Radio also has future plans to locate a broadcasting ship in the South China Sea to reach all of Asia.
