Dear Sir:

I am sorry that we have waited so long, about answering your letter, but the Chief Engineer about that time was acting up here at the station and I have recieved several letters of the same nature, I am always glad to get letters of this nature and will answer all of them.

The information that you have on your log is correct, and again I say that we are sorry for the delay, and we promise to do better the next time.

D*Xingly yours
