

WAYB

The Family Station

WAYNESBORO BROADCASTING CORP. — One of America's Finest Radio Stations — P. O. BOX 938, WAYNESBORO, VA.

February 23, 1948

Dear Mr. Morss:

This is to acknowledge proof of verification, on the reception of our signal on the day of Dec. 20, 1947.

The transmitter in service is a W.E. type 451-A-1, direct crystal control. Last stage having (6) 50 watt vacuum tubes for Grid modulation (W.E. 242-C). Maximum rated carrier power output 250 watts.

W.E. antenna tuning Unit, A vertical antenna with charger 180' (185' overall height) of uniform cross-section, guyed, series fed. Ground system 90 radials 165' in length, copper.

We. limiter 1126-C, G.R. frequency monitor, G.R. modulation monitor. A raytheon studio console.

Thank you for listening.

Yours truly

Joseph Hendrick
Joseph Hendrick
Asst. Ch. Eng.

