Dear Bill:

As you can no doubt tell by the amount of time it took us to reply to your letter, we get a tremendous amount of mail from all over the world from CKSA listeners. For some reason our 10,000 watt signal really covers a lot of ground. Most of our letters come from Finland and Greenland.

The closest I have ever travelled to Colorado would have to be when I saw Yellowstone National Park, six years ago ... we Canadians don't spend a lot of time in the U.S.. You see our "dollar" is worth only about 73¢ American, so a trip south gets very expensive.

Lloydminster is a community of 15,000, about 2½ hours east of Edmonton, Alberta in the heart of some of the world's richest oilfields and farmland. Our city is the only one in Canada to be split by a provincial border. 50th Avenue divides Alberta and Saskatchewan. CKSA studios are about 100 yards inside the Alberta border.

Thank you for taking the time to write Bill, I've enclosed some CKSA stickers and consider this an invitation to visit "The Border City" next time venture north.

Best wishes,

Pat Thomas
